

Video Relay Services (VRS) is wonderful to use. I want to see it become an important real-time communication service. Communication is faster and better with using VRS not with TTY and Relay Service. Text through Relay Service took forever to get through automated system. Do not cut anymore. Video mail is answering machine is the best thing happened.